

Canoe Quest

July 12 - 15

Ages: Middle School - Adults

Cost: $200 per person

Directors: Jim & Cathy Becker

Campers, accompanied by wilderness-experienced adult sponsors, spend 3 days and 2 nights canoeing the Calamus River, preparing their own meals outdoors, and camping out in tents. Exploring Sand Hills river life, sleeping under the stars, seeing God in nature, building self confidence, and working together in community are highlights of Canoe Quest. Bring muscles! Some canoeing experience is helpful but not necessary.

Times: Arrive 2:00 p.m. on Friday
Ends 3:00 p.m. on Monday

Faith & Fine Arts

July 7-12

Directors: Rev. Becky McNeil & Tessa Warner

Junior and senior high students and 2019 high school graduates who are interested in the fine arts will enjoy this camp! The finale of the week is a worship experience that includes all the components in which the campers have engaged during the week: art, music, drama, writing, and film making. In addition to the fine arts focus, campers will enjoy all the usual recreational activities as well as participate in small group faith study.

Times: Arrive 3:00 p.m. on Sunday
Ends 1:00 p.m. on Friday

Adventures In Community

May 28-31

Ages: 18 years & older

Cost: $215 per camper

Directors: Rev. Bob & Eileen Kunz

This camp is designed for adults with developmental disabilities. Volunteer "Companions" are recruited to enjoy camp with and assist campers with their needs. Activities may include a visit to a local ranch to see farm animals, bingo with prizes, talent show, dance, hayrack ride, singing, evening vespers around the campfire, fishing, and games.

One of the biggest gifts that we can give to our children and youth is an investment in their spiritual lives. Through small group Bible study, meeting new friends, living in cabins, sharing meals, worship, exploring nature, and play, summer church camp offers a unique opportunity for learning and developing healthy relationships with God and with each other.

We invite you to invest in the life of a young person

- by sending your child or grandchild to Kamp Kaleo, or bringing them to Little Campers
- by volunteering to counsel or direct a camp or act as sponsor on Canoe Quest
- by enabling children in your church or in your community to attend camp
- by making a financial contribution to Kamp Kaleo to help underwrite the costs of volunteer counselors, directors, and nurses
- by lifting up Kamp and campers in your prayers
- by volunteering your time and talent to prepare the camp for the summer season in the spring and "button down" the camp for winter in the fall

Camp fees include a Kamp t-shirt.

All payments must be made prior to the first day of camp.

Middle School Kamp

June 23-28

Ages: 6th - 8th Grade

Cost: $395 per camper

Director: Rev. Steve and Caitlin Mason

Students entering sixth through eighth grades begin to develop deep and lasting friendships at this camp. This age group is just beginning to transition from a literal understanding of faith to a deeper level of understanding of who they are in relationship with God. How we treat one another is another big learning curve as these young people discover who they are and how they relate to others. Now that the campers are a bit older, tanking, canoeing, and tubing the river become options!

Times: Arrive 3:00 p.m. on Sunday
Ends 1:00 p.m. on Friday

High School Kamp

June 2-7

Ages: 9th - 12th Grade & 2019 HS Grads

Cost: $395 per camper

Directors: Rev. Katie Miller & Brandon Proffitt

Senior High Camp always ends in tears because nobody wants to leave camp! The joys of friendship, discoveries of self and deeper understanding of God and faith help campers to begin to see a purpose for their lives and discover their gifts, talents and passions. Senior High campers enjoy the full range of camp activities.

Times: Arrive 3:00 p.m. on Sunday
Ends 1:00 p.m. on Friday
